The Class of 1966
Takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1966 Arcana
to

Mrs. Marie Carlin

In full recognition of her inspiring qualities as a teacher; her sound counsel and her generous help as a friend; and her cheerful optimism and lofty purpose as a woman.

ADMINISTRATION

The Class of 1966 is fortunate indeed in having as its administration three dedicated leaders and teachers, who did much to promote qualities that will make for our success in life.

Mr. Julius Schneider, as our Supervising Principal, was instrumental in seeing that we, the Class of 1966, received skillful training and thoughtful guidance through the years.

Mr. Francis X. Antonelli, our Principal, gave us friendly counsel and helped us make vital decisions that will help us in later life.

Mr. Leon Dixon, Assistant Principal, kept us under control and showed us the path whereby we may take our place as future citizens.

Our administrators have given us of their best to prepare us as we travel life's pathway.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF "66"

In September 1962 our lofty green and white space craft began its four year journey carrying as its passengers the Class of 1966. The destination . . . the unknown planet of Graduation.

We began our first year of the journey as Freshmen in the junior high with a successful magazine campaign. On May 17, 1963 we celebrated Freshman Day and said "Good-bye" to the junior high. The day was ended with an enjoyable dance with music provided by the Four Sharps.

The second stage of our journey was an exciting one for we were entering the senior high for the first time. In the beginning of our Sophomore year we elected class officers for the first time. When April rolled around we held our annual class day and dance using the theme "April Showers". The first half of our journey was now complete. Our junior year was a very exciting year. We received our Class rings and presented our Class play "Pick A Dilly". Junior Day was held April 30, 1965. Using "Festival Time" as our theme we presented a very enjoyable assembly. A dance was held that evening with music by the Invaders.

At last we entered the final lap of our journey and in the distance our goal could be seen. Our senior year was filled with many varied and memorable activities, the main one being the publication of the Arcana. Our senior play, "Down to Earth", was presented on December 2, 1965. Senior Day was celebrated on December 17, 1965. Our theme was, "Music, Music, Music". A dance was held that evening featuring the Rhythm Blues. The prom, one of the last senior activities was held on May 27, 1966.

After a seemingly short time we've reached our destination . . . the unknown planet of Graduation. The time for departing has come, and each and everyone of us is leaving with heavy hearts but open minds. We realize the graduating class achieves some distinction and thus brings honor to W.H.H.S. Then it may be said that among the classes of greatest renown in the history of the school, the Class of "66" is first.

Parting is never easy and to part from friends and school is hardest of all. We realize that life goes on, and so regardless of where the future leads us, we will always be proud that we graduated from West Hazelton High School!

CLASS POEM

Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight,
And make me a child again just for tonight,
To the wonderful four years within these walls spent,
To the friendship and learning our lives now indent.

Our first steps on entering this Blue and Gold wall,
Were with hesitation as we can recall,
Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and now--
A Senior--soon taking the final bow.

On to what the future may bring,
A cherished moment, when last together we sing
Our beloved Alma Mater song,
To keep in our hearts as we go along,
The fairway of life, that future beyond,
Will be better because of our high school bond.

Marvels of science to us are revealed,
Who knows what marvels lie still yet concealed?
That we with our knowledge may yet impart,
To a peace seeking world so weary at heart.

The Master Mind gives us the Golden Rule;
Have we learned it well in our years at school?
Giving and sharing, not looking for gain,
From pettiness and jealousy, let us refrain,
Our golden assets will be friendships so true,
We look for the best beyond the blue.

Committments we make, tasks we undertake,
Carried out with a knowledge and skill,
That helps us to shape, and keep us awake,
To the glorious future lying over the hill,

The guidance so willingly given here,
By teachers who patiently year after year,
Offered us their talent, experience and time,
Enriching their lives, as well as yours and mine,

Familiar faces, just for awhile
The years will pass, we'll recall with a smile,
Some precious moment that went by,
In this '66 Class of West Hazleton High.

CLASS PROPHECY

Quite a few of our classmates are now serving in the armed services. BEVERLY GOTTSTEIN and LINDA KOCH are Waves, presently stationed in Mexico. PAT HOLLY is a Wac in Russia. MIKE KUSMITSKY, MIKE LABUDA, SCOTT LEIB, and BILLY LUCHI have all received their wings in the Air Force. REV JOSEPH KOLCUN is a chaplain on a submarine located somewhere in the Pacific.

Also serving our country, but in a slightly different manner, are astronauts LARRY BABULA, JERRY HIRCOLLA, and JACK WITTIG at the A. SLAVICK space center in Ohio. Also working at the space center are secretaries LUANA KOPCHINSKI and BARBARA MIZENKO.

Now let's travel via time machine to Paris, where we look in on the studios of the famous fashion designer, HILARY CLATCH. Three of Hilary's models are MONICA CHERVINO, SHARON DeBOVES, and JACKIE CROLL. While in France, we happen to come upon suave millionaire DAVE SABOL and his close associate, CHILLY QUINN.

Still in Europe, we drop in for a short visit with GEORGE DZURISHIN, U.S. Ambassador to Germany and FRANCES SUDA, U.S. representative to Japan. Skipping over to Egypt, we come across engineer JOHN GAWRON and his assistant, LEE HOUSER, building a bridge across the Nile. Also working on this project with Gawron are WAYNE JONES, financial advisor, and NANCY HENDERSCHEDT, DONNA BOYER, and DOLORES CHERASARO, his secretaries.

Hurrying now to London, we have a few moments to talk with author JOE TIZEKKER, who is presently working on a new spy novel called PLATINUM FINGER.

Our time machine takes us now to the warm waters of the Mediterranean where oceanographers JOHN DIMMERLING and FRANK MONKOSKI are engaged in a project to make disposable clothes out of seaweed.

One cannot journey around the world without making a stop at Spain. We visit for a short while with the present U.S. Ambassador to Spain, NANCY FISKE. She tells us that she has just had her portrait painted by the world-renown artist, JAMES MELKOSKY. Then we're off to the arena for the bullfight, where we discover that the prize bulls are owned by two of our own agriculture students, EARL READER and BOB NEISWENDER.

We discover that the matador, who is the very first American to ever perform in the Arena, is also a fellow classmate, EDDIE PAVLISHIN. We stop to admire the famous Spanish lace and meet MARY MITCHELL and NORMA MILLER, who each now possess a million-dollar bank account. We decide to rest, and stop in the Motel Hotel, owned by LARRY MOTEL. We relax to the music of JOHN BARGER, whose famous compositions have been translated into Spanish and every other language. We also get a chance to see PETE FOOSE, Larry's business associate.

We now journey via time machine to Germany. We stop in a small cafe where we see RITA EVANCHO, EVELYN LORAH and BERNADINE FENDRICK, now world travelers. We stop to see TOMMY GATSKI, a world-famous physicist who is now in Germany lecturing at the universities.

A turn of the switch on the time machine and we find ourselves in Austria, where we stop for a visit with DONNA ZIERDT, who is now a famous musician performing in Vienna.

Another turn of the switch and we arrive in the midst of Africa, when we speak with TOM CHESLOCK, a world-famous big game hunter. We also stop for a short visit with JOHN KUZMISSION and DAVID TRISHMAN, joint owners of the world's largest diamond mine.

Our next stop is the exotic country of Japan, where we find JUNE BATOR and MARGIE FORGARTY, American contestants in the Olympics. We also see MIKE DE FRANCISCO, who is trying out for the title of "World's Faster Walker."

Via time machine, we stop in Australia. There we find WAYNE FAGAN and DONALD SHUMAN, joint owners of the world's largest kangaroo farm.

We go back to the U.S. again, where we find ourselves on the West coast at the offices of a large shipping firm, Crossley and Kulkusky Inc., Co. owned by RON CROSSLEY and BERNIE KULKUSKY. Several of our old classmates working for the firm are private secretaries, JUDY FELLIN and BONNIE MOTEL. VICTOR BRAGALONE is head of the firm's branch in England, and MIKE CISAR is head of the firm's branch in Zanzibar.

Since we're on the West coast anyway, we might as well take a short trip to Hollywood where a few members of the class of '66" are working on the film "Gone with the Rain". Playing leading parts in the picture are LINDA GREENE, SUSAN NUSSBAUM, JIMMY GAVITT, JOE BILLIG and BOB DAVIS, with cameramen JOHN BREHM and BOB HILDEBRAND.

Setting our time machine for Chicago, we arrive at the offices of DENNY FLAIM, president of "Flaim"-proof Cookware, Inc. Also at Flaim-proof cookware are Vice-president WALTER SZYMONA and secretaries MARY STASCINSKY and MARY ANN MICHALOCHICK.

Now traveling to Dayton, Ohio, we come to the JOHN SABOL Medical Center where the famous brain surgeon,

CLASS PROPHECY

LOTHAR HAPKE, is just about to begin an operation. Assisting him are nurses MONICA SIMCHOCK and JUDY FRYE.

Setting our time machine for New York, we find a number of our classmates in this state. We tour New York City and find out that two of our high school chorus girls, JUDY MARGLE and SANDRA HOUSEKENECHT, are now singing on Broadway. FRANCIS KULIG is now performing at Carnegie Hall, and KAREN KIRCHDOERFER has just finished re-decorating the Waldorf-Astoria, now under the management of BOB FRITZ. BARBARA DANIELS, GENEVIEVE BUCHMAN and HELEN BRASKEY are all his private secretaries, and GLENN EVERETT is his business associate.

We enter the G and S Cocktail Lounge, operated by GARY GALLAGHER and RICK SNYDER, where entertainment is provided by comedian BOB SEAMON, billed as another Jerry Lewis. While relaxing at the G and S Lounge, we notice in the newspaper that LARRY SMITH has just been voted the best-dressed man of the year. While in New York, we stop at the world-known salon of Mr. D., DANNY KASSICK, and speak for a few moments with him and his chief assistant JUDY LEONARD.

We've spent enough time in New York, however, and must be moving on. This time to Washington, D. C., where JOE FERENCE and RAY BERGERON are running mates for president and vice-president of the United States. We wish them both luck, and travel on to see some of the members of our class who are in sports. HARRY BERLITZ is playing pro-football. RONNIE BLEY is managing the world-heavy weight champion, MARK DONATO, BOB CLARK is a professional wrestler. Also in Washington, we get the opportunity to chat with DONNA REIMILLER, a professor of history at the Smithsonian Institute.

From Washington, we travel to Miami to chat with JIMMY CLYDE, who is now producing a movie based on the best-seller TO KILL A SQUAKING BIRD, written by MADELINE PECORA. His two stage managers, HAROLD KARCHNER and ANTHOY LORAH are setting up the stage for the final scene. We get a chance to speak to the leading lady, GEORGIANA GUNDY, and the chief hair stylist, JUDY FISHER.

Before we go nearer to home, let's dash back to Italy for a short visit with Eddie Sabol, owner of the largest wine factories in the country. We find that SHARON SALVATERRA, CHERYL PUSKAR, MADELINE MITCHELL, MARY LEE LOMBARGO and THERESA BODNAR are all employed as secretaries. We also meet TOM MUNDIE, who is chief manager of the vineyards.

Coming closer to home, we journey to Harrisburg, Penna., where we meet JERRY BAZEWICZ, governor of Penna., congratulating MARILYN KOCH for winning the Nobel Prize in literature. We also meet PAT HENRY and CHERYL HERSKER, candidates for the state Senate. We discover that DAWN HETHERINGTON, CAROL HOLENA, CATHY LUCHI, and NANCY SZYMONA are all employed by the state government.

We stop at Andrews Memorial Hospital, named after DEBBIE ANDREWS and LINDA ANDREWS, the joint founders. Next we stop at the University of Penna. to hear a lecture by BOBBY CLYDE, a professor of chemical engineering. We stop to purchase a copy of the newly-published book titled THE DEFINITION OF INFINITY by STAN PAWLOWSKI.

We travel via time machine to Penn State University where ALAN RICKENBACHER and DAVE PENKALA, professors of Physics, have just finished the world's greatest atomic reactor and are ready to demonstrate it. We also met BARBARA SYPEK and KATHY RUSNOCK, newspaper correspondents for the New York Times, on hand to report on the invention. On campus, we see CONNIE TAMEA and KATHY MILLER, both professors in the education curriculum.

CHERYL HOLLAND, RITA MEHALKO, and MARY HUTTON, millionaires who donated the funds for the invention, were also present. LINDA HENRY, SARAH DAUBENSPECK, and MARY LEVKULIC, all registered nurses were on hand in case of accidents.

Near home, we find JIMMY WARNER, Pennsylvania chief game warden. In our own Conyngham Valley, we find CLAUDE IPHER, GARY MATUKAITUS, JOE LEFCHICK, and BARRY TROY, all successful farmers. In Hazleton, RAY ENAMA is a known lawyer; TOM MATTIE is a Mercury car salesman; and BARBARA YESVETZ is a Standard-Speaker reporter. Back in West Hazleton, we find KATHY ZIERDT, the first woman mayor of our old home town, and in old W.H.H.S. JOANIE GOGOLA is now the gym teacher and KATHY RUTKOSKY is a Biology teacher.

We hail a cab, driven by PAT LINDNER who has just won the Safe Driver of the Year Award. He takes us to Macey's Hotel, owned and operated by GREG MACE, in partnership with BILLY SCHRADER. Bill also doubles as a night watchman. In their employment, we find KATHY WAGNER and CAROL BADDICK keeping an account of financial affairs are JANET HENRY and LINDA CRAVER.

Since we are a little stiff from sitting in that cramped time machine, we decide to take a walk through town. Going down Broad Street, we notice several new buildings. The most prominent of these is the 37th National Bank, erected by JOHN SLUSSER, with CAL FERRARI as its President. Outside the bank, we spy a dusty-looking gentleman sitting on a bench eating a hamburger. Imagine our surprise when we discover it is TOM PISCURA. Upon speaking to him, we find out that he is an eccentric millionaire and not a bum as we had supposed.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the same building as the bank, MAUREEN DERCOLE and ROSE MARIE NOVITSKY, famous designers, operate the "Paris Shoppe." Inside, LEON MARCHETTI, who owns an airline, is buying a new mink coat for his wife. The coat is made from mink raised at WALTER ACKERMAN'S mink ranch. Modeling the latest fashions are MARY JANE HORVATH and KATHY BACHMAN.

A large department store with the sign "Schell, Yenchick & Co." has just been opened. As we enter, we see PAUL HORN walking up and down the aisles. When we speak with him, he informs us that he is the manager of the business. His partners are RUSTY SCHELL and JOHN YENCHICK.

Exhausted by this tour of the city, we stop at Little Mary's Cafe, operated by MARY BETH THOMAS. She tells us that LESLIE RIPPLE and GAIL PENDAL are now employed by the State Department. We also learn that PAT WANDZILAK is a secret agent in the CIA. WILLY WENNER and GENE BROYAN have recently been appointed the Secretaries of Agriculture and Commerce, respectively.

Our lunch is disturbed by the sound of music on the street. We rush outside in time to view the Homecoming Parade. As the WHHS band marches past, we notice that it is directed by the famous PROF. JAKE GUYDISH. Mr. and Miss WHHS of the class of '66", RITA PALKO and RICHIE ROSSI lead the parade in a red Corvette driven by BOBBY KASARDA, who owns a Chevy salesroom. We find out that Rita teaches English at U.C.L.A. and that Richie is a Supreme Court Justice.

We hurry to the game, which is played at the new WHHS stadium, designed by EMIL MOSKOVICH. We find seats on the 50-yard-line and watch coaches BILLY KRAMER and KEITH KARCHNER lead the Wildcats onto the field.

Also at the game were SANDY GLEESON, the millionairess, and CHARLENE STAUFFER, her private secretary. PAULA ZELLNER and her husband, who is a television producer, are sitting in front of us. We chat for a while with them and we are informed that LINDA KRASNAY and KATHY EVANCHO are both research biologists. JUNAREE HOEFFLING is a speech therapist and SANDY FRYE is the director of a nursing home on Long Island.

After the game, we stop into Brehm's. While we are there we meet DOTTY KNORR and LINDA KENVIN, models for SEVENTEEN. MARY ELLEN FICHTER and NANCY REIMER, coaches of the WHHS girl's basketball team are also present. We speak with JoANN GIBSON and LINDA DEITRICK, both hostesses for TWA.

Then we return to our hotel and turn on the television. On one channel, we see the ceremony honoring JOHNNY SCHOTT, who pitched a perfect game for the Phillies. On hand to give speeches are MIKE BODNAR and NICKEY ZACK. We learn that Mike and Nick are co-owners of a bowling alley. Another channel, we watch a new series starring LINDA DODSON. The guest stars are ADRIENNE MANGLER and CAROL JAMACK.

In the evening, we attend the grand opening of BETTY JANE FELLIN'S night club. Music is provided by Nargo and the Day People, led by EDDIE NARKIEWICZ. Their latest hit record is written by MONICA SHEMA and MARY ANN WANDZILAK, whose songs have been recorded by all of the top groups. MELANIE BENJAMIN, LINDA EISENHART, MARSHA MILLER and ROSEMARIE BARBER are the go-go girls.

Across the room we see our Junior Miss JOANN KADYSEWSKI, now a professional entertainer, and her escort for the evening, LARRY GRUSETSKI, a successful lawyer. ANITA BYOREK is accompanied by JOEY WIDITZ. They are both prominent hair stylists.

During one dance, Anita faints. JANICE SCHUGARDT, CLARA PATTON and GOLDIE HYDE, all registered nurses, come running. Finally, Dr. SAM UNUSCAVAGE revives Anita with smelling salts. She is taken to the West Hazleton General Hospital in an ambulance driven by JOE SHELBY.

We go along in the ambulance, and are given a tour of the hospital by Dr. RICHARD SHAFFER, an intern. We meet the Director of Nurses, PAT HORN and her assistant, ANITA SMITH in their offices. While inspecting the wards, we see PEGGY VAN HORN and BONNIE WHITEBREAD, world travelers, who were slightly injured in an auto accident.

Our tour of the future has finally ended, so we step into the time machine for the long trip home.

Linda Kenvin

Mary Beth Thomas's extra typing paper to the highest bidder.
Lothar Hapke's body building book to Francis Lingousky.
Charlene Stauffer's seat in French 2 to anyone who passed French 1.
Carol Obzut's rush to make the last bell to Barbara Behum.
Sam Unuscavage's laughable, likeable disposition to Jimmy Platukis.
Madeline Ulshafer's bashfulness to another girl who blushes as easily.

Wayne Jones's joke book and wise cracks to David Goach.
Larry Motel's and Emil Moskovich's school spirit to Dennis Blanner and Alan Lenhardt.
Mary Wandzilak's sewing projects in Home Ec. to Paulett Davidovich.
Joann Gibson's old piano books to another Beethoven fan.
Mary Lee Lombargo's cheering voice to Donna Pangrazzi.
Kathy Zierdt's worries, school and otherwise, to Dear Abby.
Donald Shuman's bottle of growing pills to John Quinn.
Mary Stascinsky's trips to Weatherly to someone else whose interests are centered there.
Joe Tizek's dislike for school work to Thomas Lawrence.
Madeline Mitchell's thoughtfulness to June Boock.
Donna Reimiller's P.O.D. grades to Jane Stauffer.
Nancy Henry's position on the Debating Team to a Junior who likes to argue.
Tom Mattie's direct route to the shop to Leon Blashock.
Sharon Salvaterra's promptness to another clock watcher.
Jane Recla's baton to the future co-captain of the majorettes.
David Sabol's good looks to James Engle.
Monica Simchock's fairy loop collection to Barbara Davis.
Ed Pavlishin's and Rusty Schell's "goofing off" in Chem. Lab to two other clowns.
Tom Cheslock's collection of Physics formulas to Dave Stevens.
Genevieve Buchman's constant dates to another nitehawk.
Louanna Kopchinski's liking for under-classmen to a Junior girl looking for a boyfriend.
The Senior girl's neatness and poise to the Junior girls.
The Senior boy's safe driving record (?) to the Junior boys.

And last but not least to our Alma Mater we leave our fond memories, friends, and joyous hearts to roam through these halls as quiet remembrances forever.
